

ORLANDO SZASZ

B U S I N E S S A N G E L

Orlando Szasz entered the business world while still in college. He founded Renania alongside his brother and less than 7 years after its launch, Renania became the leader of the Romanian safety equipment market, a position which it has maintained to this day.

The Szasz brothers also acquired a relevant position in Top 500 Forbes during the years.

After 17 successful years in his leading role, Orlando Szasz has decided to handover the CEO position in Renania and focused more on exploring the world and helping startup founders build new and innovative organizations through his Business Angel projects.
